Rich Villodas is the Brooklyn-born lead pastor of New Life Fellowship, a large multiracial church in Elmhurst, Queens, with more than seventy-five countries represented. He holds a Master of Divinity from Alliance Theological Seminary and enjoys reading widely, preaching, and writing on contemplative spirituality, justice-related matters and the art of preaching.

Rich is also the author of several books. His first book, The Deeply Formed Life (2020), offers a transformative path for those seeking depth and intentionality. In Good and Beautiful and Kind (2022), he explores the power of kindness and living with goodness in a complex world. His third book, The Narrow Path (2024), challenges readers to walk a purposeful and spiritually authentic life in the midst of distractions.
