

ADJUNCT FACULTY APPLICATION GUIDE

Complete and submit the application form:

- Faculty Application

Submit the following:

- Cover letter (Optional)
- Curriculum Vitae or Resume
- Personal Statements: please attach a brief statement (not more than one page each) on each of the following topics:
 - Your philosophy of education
 - Your relationship and commitment to Jesus Christ and the church
 - How you would relate your Christian faith to your academic discipline in your teaching
 - Read the "Diversity Rationale" document located at: <http://fresno.edu/about/our-mission/diversity-rationale> (also located at the end of the adjunct application). Write a brief statement about your experience in diversity, and how you can help advance the work of diversity in your teaching and learning, research and scholarship, advising and/or service based on the FPU Diversity Rationale.
- Transcripts (showing the highest level of degree earned)
 - FPU Graduates must also submit their transcripts.
 - Many universities offer digital delivery of official transcripts. These may be emailed directly to soe.applications@fresno.edu
 - Unofficial copies will be accepted but it must reflect the highest degree earned.
- Three Letters of Recommendation
 - Two letters that speak to your professional experience and abilities.
 - One letter that speaks to your faith and Christian commitment. This may be from your pastor, priest, minister, or someone with an official role within the established place of worship you attend. This person's knowledge of your Christian life should be expressed in the letter.