

Fresno TEACHER RESIDENCY PROGRAM

Learn More

Visit fpu.edu/graduate to review information about Fresno Pacific University's Multiple Subject, Single Subject or Early Childhood Special Education Credential programs.

Contact Us

Contact a representative from either Fresno Pacific University: graduate.studies@fresno.edu or Fresno Unified School District: tdresidency@fresnounified.org

Ready to Apply Now?

Follow these steps:

1. Complete the Fresno Unified Certificated online application and submit your resume, two letters of support and your transcripts: fpu.edu/fresnoresidency
2. Apply for FPU's Credential Program: fpu.edu/apply
3. Selection begins September 2024 and continues until cohort is filled.

Program Options

	TK-6 Cohort	7-12 Cohort	Education Specialist Cohort
Credential	Multiple Subject	Single Subject	Early Childhood Special Education
Emphasis	Elementary	English, Math, Science, Social Science or Spanish	Children ages birth to kindergarten with mild to moderate support needs and extensive support needs

Highlights

- Teaching credential from Fresno Pacific University Master of Arts in Teaching or Special Education optional (post-credential)
- Learn from district professionals
- Year-long residency placement
- Teaching positions in Fresno Unified School District
- 12-month program starting May 2025

Program Support

- Cohort model (30 general education residents & 10 education specialist residents)
- $34,000 financial stipend
- Financial aid and grants may be available
- Culture of collaboration
- Co-teach alongside a mentor teacher
- Residency-specific coursework
- Test prep support

